XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Here in 2021, sexual relations between Men and women have never been more dire. Thanks to the advent of feminism, the dating market is a cesspool of lies, deceit, and utter despair. As a result, Many Men have thrown up their hands and have sworn off dealing with women on a sexual level altogether.

This apathetic mindset has created factions of Men the world characterizes as “hate groups” and/or “misogynistic cults.” The “black pill”, and to some degree, “MGTOW” communities are the most prominent detractors of anything resembling pursuing females romantically on any level.

In their defense, one could certainly understand why they have taken this stance. Divorce rape, paternity fraud, rampant infidelity, false rape accusations, and the rise of the #MeToo movement are all very good reasons to completely avoid sexual conquest(s) with women.

Everything Men have been taught about women has been an outright lie. Consequently, most Men struggle and suffer in their dating lives and have neither rhyme nor reason as to why they can't seem to get a handle on today's women. Down is up, up is down, left is Albuquerque, and right is peanut butter.

Things are ass backwards these days. So it's no surprise that marriage and birth rates have dropped precipitously due to Men walking away from relationships.

However, as bad as things are, it is possible for a Man to navigate and even thrive in today's sexual marketplace while mitigating the many risks involved.

But doing this is far from easy. After a lifetime of gynocentric programming, it is extremely difficult if not damn near impossible for a Man to reprogram his firmware for the purposes of not getting taken for a ride by a female.

As daunting a task as this is, it can be done. There are many, many steps involved in completely transforming your psyche in such a way that helps you avoid disaster when dealing with women on a sexual level. But it starts with a basic understanding of how today's women operate, what their motivations are, and how they execute their objectives.

Enter, The XLIX Laws Of Sharpe.

This guide will serve as a starting point for any Man looking for a better understanding of how women conduct themselves in relationships on all levels. It will speak freely, plainly, and will be completely devoid of political correctness, or sugarcoating.

If you are a Man searching for answers after a break up, a divorce, or constant sexual frustration, many of the answers you seek will be in this guide. My hope is that it serves as a jumping off point to your Masculine Renaissance, and your path to finding true contentment as a Man.

Thank you,

LAW I

She will never truly
belong to you;
it is simply your turn

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

This may seem like a very bleak mindset to adopt. But you can be rest assured that thinking this way will keep you level-headed if things go sideways with any particular female.

You can never own a woman. It doesn't matter how much money you have, how big your dick is, or how many times she tells you "I belong to you and only you," a woman never truly belongs to you in an ownership sense.

Regardless of title or circumstance, women are going to do what their hypergamous firmware tells them to do, and they have little control over their actions when it comes to their natural instincts as women.

Today's women bounce from cock to cock, relationship to relationship, and Man to Man on a regular basis. They are quite literally on auto-pilot in terms of their romantic decisions.

But understanding the grim reality that most women you get involved with will eventually move on

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

(whether it's her choice or yours) will save you a world of disappointment.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW II

Never treat her like a lady if she is a slut; she will punish you with the fury of 1000 suns for not recognizing her for what she truly is and treating her accordingly

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

One of the ironclad rules a Man who is unplugged from the matrix should burn into his brain, is that he should never treat a slut like a lady. The common adage “the better you treat her, the worse she’ll treat you” applies directly to this law.

The reason sluts punish Men who treat them well is because they know they are not worthy of such treatment. Sure, they will tell the world that they deserve a good Man, a good life, to be treated like a queen, and so forth.

But deep down sluts know they are worth nothing more than the orgasms their three holes provide Men. Understanding this reality, they punish Men for not knowing any better.

Further, sluts don’t know how to act when a Man of value actually treats her with respect. This is a foreign concept to them. So when being treated with such reverence and respect, they act out, misbehave, and unconsciously sabotage the relationship so that they can be thrown back to the Men who treat them like shit; the Men they know they truly deserve.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW III

Never feed her before you fuck her

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

“Foodie call” is a recent moniker invented to humorize the deceitful act of a female going on a date with a Man she is not romantically interested in, unbeknownst to the Man, for the sole purpose of getting a free meal(s).

There are laws against false advertising and false representation that come with stiff penalties. Yet, today's women willfully, wantonly, and brazenly engage in this activity with impunity on a regular basis.

This act takes advantage of a Man's provider instinct and his sexual desires which makes it very easy for women to feed themselves on another Man's dime while misleading them about their true intentions.

Abiding by this law will help you steer clear of this trap, saving you money, and most of all save your time.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW IV

She will never love
you unconditionally;
unconditional love is
for children & pets;
not Men

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Unconditional love is the enemy of evolutionary biology. Females are incapable of loving a Man unconditionally because the advancement and continuation of the human species depends on it.

If women were able to truly love unconditionally, the best genes would be bred out of existence in a matter of just a few generations. Consequently, women and children would be vulnerable to the perils of the outside world.

This is precisely why a woman's love is directly tied to what you are, rather than who you are. Their physical and financial well-being is always in limbo. As a result, they are neither prepared nor capable of surviving on their own (not literally, but rather in a quality of life sense). So they choose Man based on what they can provide.

Granted, women don't always make the best decisions when it comes to mate selection. The lack of real physical danger and/or financial ruin leading to becoming destitute, causes women to prioritize physical genes over resourceful genes when they are young and fertile.

But expecting a woman to love you unconditionally is like asking her subconscious to entertain the thought of bearing the offspring of a Man who is physically and/or mentally inferior. And because her firmware does not allow her to willfully procreate with inferior specimens of the opposite sex, this manifests itself with hypergamous decisions.

Of course, women are never consciously thinking about this. They are simply following their feminine directives. So there's no need to take it personally when you admit to yourself that your woman would jump ship if you were to take a substantial monetary loss, without showing the resolve to reclaim it.

Put simply, if you cannot provide for and/or physically protect a woman, she will never love you. This is merely a survival mechanism. Nothing more.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW V

Assume she is a slut until she proves otherwise

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

In a court of law, the accused is innocent until proven guilty. As such, the burden of proof is on the prosecution to prove guilt beyond all reasonable doubt.

Any Man or woman who has been paying attention over the last two and a half decades has seen more than enough evidence to assume that most women are sluts. Everything from personal anecdotes, stories from friends and relatives, social media, and so forth proves beyond all reasonable doubt that most women sleep around indiscriminately.

On the strength of decades of overwhelming evidence, it would be behoove a Man to assume that any given woman he is dealing with romantically is, indeed, a slut until she proves otherwise.

Not adhering to this law will lead to dire consequences (See Law II)

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW VI

Comfort & complacency are the arch enemies of Masculinity

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Put simply and succinctly, comfortable and complacent Men eventually succumb to the creature comforts their Masculine drive has provided them.

Inevitably, they become soft and weak, both mentally and physically.

In order to avoid such a fate, a Man must learn to exist in a constant state of malcontent, lest he become a victim of his own success.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW VII

She will lose respect and attraction for you if you do not try to fuck her on the first date

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

DISCLAIMER: Make sure you have a woman's consent before attempting to have sex with her.

Before you lose your mind and start clutching your pearls, take a deep breath and understand that you already knew this to be true. You just didn't have the balls to admit it to yourself.

Now that I have given you permission to think like a Man, there are a couple of reasons today's women lose respect for you if you do not try to fuck them on the very first date.

#1 - It shows masculinity

In an age where Masculine behaviors have been legislated against, a Man who actually shows that he is sexually attracted to a woman and is unafraid to act in such a way that leaves no doubt that his intent is to, indeed, fuck her, is a highly attractive quality that is clearly lost in today's Men.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

#2 - It reveals incongruence

There are plenty of Men who look Masculine but don't act Masculine. And if you look the part but don't act the part, a woman would start to entertain thoughts that you are fool's gold.

Displaying masculinity during a date is great. But if you don't follow through by trying to fuck her, she will think that you are incongruent. Once these thoughts enter her mind, her attraction to you will be gravely compromised.

#3 - They take it as an insult

Modern woman quite literally take it as an insult if you do not try to fuck them on the first date. It is a slap in the face and a blow to their fragile egos.

If you don't make a move, she will start to think that you might not be sexually attracted to her. And because woman can never admit not being attracted to every Man on the face of the earth, she might actually start to think that you are gay.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

It is important to keep in mind that just because a woman has it in her mind that she isn't going to sleep with you, that it doesn't mean she doesn't want to, and it doesn't mean she doesn't want you to try.

A Man who doesn't risk being embarrassed by being turned down, in her mind, is likely a Man who doesn't take risks in any other areas of his life.

You may not fuck her, but you will most certainly have her respect for having the balls to show raw, visceral, Masculinity in the face of potential awkwardness (and blue balls).

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW VIII

Never allow her to become too comfortable; an insecure girlfriend is a well behaved one

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

There is no such thing as a hot, feminine, obedient girlfriend who is totally secure in her relationship.

When a woman becomes too comfortable in a relationship everything suffers. Her weight, her attitude, her sex drive, her cooperation, etc.

Women who are just a little insecure, meaning they understand very clearly that they can and will be replaced if her Man decides to, are much better behaved.

Keep in mind that there is no need for constant, verbal reminders that she is on the chopping block. Doing so could backfire and create unneeded tension.

But indirectly showing her every so often that you can replace her with subtle reminders like as flirting with your waitress, or allowing a younger, more attractive woman to flirt with you, will show her without you having to verbalize it which is far more effective.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW IX

Embrace the Masculine burden of performance

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Learning to put the past in the past and learn from your mistakes is essential for any Man who wants to become the best version of himself.

Allowing yourself to be haunted by past mistakes will not only stunt your Masculine progress, it will throw you into a vicious cycle of anger, frustration, and hostility towards other Men who are able to do what you are not (read: Black Pill guys).

Shit happens. That's life. But don't sit around feeling sorry for yourself. Pick yourself up, dust yourself off, and charge it to the game.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

A woman's value is mostly determined by the way she looks. A Man's value is determined by what he can do and what he can provide.

A lot of Men seem to take umbrage with this assertion, wanting to be valuable without having to perform. Masculinity is a meritocracy. The more you can do and the better you are at it, the more valuable you are.

This is what is known as the Masculine burden of performance. Men who embrace it and understand that male and female value is not symmetrical, tend to do much better in life. Men who do not, tend to lead unfulfilling, frustrating, and insignificant lives (not to mention they aren't attractive to women)

As a Man you are expected to perform. This is your burden as someone lucky enough to be blessed with a Y-chromosome. Do not squander your genetic advantage.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW X

Abusive > Boring

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

DISCLAIMER: I am in no way, shape, or form, advising men to become physically abusive toward women. This law is simply pointing out reasons why females are drawn to abusive and violent men.

No, this doesn't mean that you should be physically or verbally abusive towards your woman. This is illegal. However, this will help you to understand why so many women stay in abusive relationships.

No...women do not like being physically or verbally abused. But the unpredictability of a Man's volatile mood keeps a woman on her toes, and for better or worse, keeps her around. And one of the main reasons is because there is very little boredom.

The very worst thing a Man can be in a relationship is boring. And unfortunately for a lot of women, this programming subconsciously prioritizes everything over boredom. Including abuse.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XI

The less you care about pleasing her in bed, the more she will care about pleasing you

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Women should be unselfish lovers. Not Men. If you are a Man who is unplugged then you clearly understand that the more you give to a woman, the more she wants and the less satisfied she is.

The same concept applies to the bedroom. Giving a woman oral sex if that's not what you're into is futile at best, degrading at worst.

Trying to find her G spot, searching for erogenous zones and all the other Kama Sutra babble everyone tells you will cause her to become "addicted to you" is a complete waste of time if it's not what you like.

The bottom line is that women are addicted to Men who do what they want in and out of the bedroom. Worrying about whether or not she is having the ever elusive female orgasm will quickly get old. When it does, she will start fucking someone who cares less about her "needs."

Be the selfish S.O.B. you were designed to be and do whatever you want. She will adore you for it.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XII

Her body count is higher than yours;
deal with it

The average woman has far more sexual partners than the average Man, and that is an immutable truth.

They get more opportunities, and Men are far less discriminatory. These factors alone create an environment that allows a woman to sleep with as many Men as her slutty little heart desires.

Her body count will always be higher than yours. This is the reality. There is no need to make inquiries regarding the number of lovers she has had in her past. No matter what the number is, you will always be shocked even though you know she is lying.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XIII

Always assume she's fucking
someone else(s);
she is never not fucking

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

A lot of Men are often disappointed and even crestfallen when they find out a woman they are sleeping with is sleeping with another Man or other Man.

Do not make the egregious mistake of assuming you are the only Man she is sleeping with.

Law XII should be warning enough to keep you from falling into this trap.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XIV

She is not special,
unique, or different;
neither are you

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

No matter how beautiful, accommodating, submissive, or obedient she is, she is not special. She's not a snowflake, she's not a unicorn.

There is nothing you can't get from other women that you get from her. Internalizing Law VIII will help you to adopt this mindset.

On the other side of that coin, you're not special either. Never allow a woman to convince you she can't get from other Men what she gets from you.

This causes complacency and tamps down your Masculine instinct to keep your edge. You are not special. She just wants you to think you are in order to give you false confidence which subsequently leads to you allowing her to engage in behaviors conducive to infidelity...which is exactly her intent.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XV

Do not be insecure;
be territorial

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Insecurity is highly unattractive. We know this. Instead, a Man should strive to be territorial. Doing so requires understanding the difference between being insecure and being territorial.

Being insecure is reactive, while being territorial is proactive.

Here's an example of insecurity:

You and your woman go to a bar to grab a drink before having a night out on the town. You go to use the bathroom, and when you come back, you see another Man chatting her up. You go over, throw your arm around your woman and say to the guy "She's with me buddy."

Then, when he is out of earshot you say to your woman "Why the fuck were you talking to that guy?!" An argument ensues and your woman accuses you of being jealous and insecure.

Here is an example of being territorial:

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Not taking your woman to a bar in the first place!!

This is proactive. This is being territorial.

As a Man, it is your responsibility to keep your woman out of situations that could potentially put your relationship at risk. Taking her to the club, or a bar is asking for trouble. So rather than having to react to a situation you allowed to happen, you proactively avoid these situations to begin with.

Being insecure versus being territorial is like night and day in a woman's eyes. She respects a Man who is territorial. But she despises him if he is insecure.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XVI

Charge it to the game

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

There are bad things that will happen in your life that you have absolutely no control over. Then there will be bad things that happen in your life that you do have control over.

In either circumstance, it is extremely important not to dwell on the past or be held hostage by it. A Man needs to have the ability to mentally dismiss the not-so-great things that happen in his life, learn from them, apply the lesson(s) learned, and move on.

In other words, you need to charge it to the game.

Okay, so she cheated on you with her boss on a team building trip. Learn to identify the signs she is fucking her boss, don't commit to women who travel for work, and charge it to the game.

She fucked her baby daddy behind her back? Don't commit to single mothers, don't commit to women who communicate with their exes, and charge it to the game.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XVII

If she travels without you, she will cheat

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Internalizing Laws II, V, XII, and XIII, will make it very obvious to you that you should never commit to a woman who regularly travels for work. "Girls trips" are also on the no-no list when it comes to commitment.

When women travel, they cheat and that's all there is to it. If she's even half decent looking, she's got Men throwing dick at her from every direction.

Combine that environment with her lack of impulse control and her physical distance from you, and you've got a recipe for a serial cheater who uses traveling to both facilitate and get away with it.

Team building activities, vacations with the girls in Cancun or Vegas, even holiday trips to see her family are all environments conducive to infidelity.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XVIII

Feminism's Four Objectives

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XVIII

Objective I

To transfer resources
from Men to women

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

This is made obvious with our family court and divorce laws. But now that more Men are opting out of marriage for obvious reasons, the system has created alternative ways for women to extrapolate resources from Men.

Baby trapping (also known as “spergulary”), paternity fraud, and common law marriage or just the tip of the iceberg.

Dating apps also fulfill this objective. The purpose of dating apps is to make money. Nothing more. The developers couldn't care less about “bringing happy couples together.”

So it should come as no surprise that the overwhelming majority of the revenue generated by these apps is from Men.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XVIII

Objective II

To remove all sexual restraints from women, while placing them on Men

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

The glorification of promiscuity, single motherhood, and abortion combined with the #MeToo movement, the ever changing “consent” goalpost, and legislation against “toxic masculinity” facilitates this objective quite effectively.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XVIII

Objective III

To remove all responsibility from women, and placing it on Men;
while taking away
male authority, and giving it to women

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Women are never held responsible for their actions even when they are clearly at fault. Whereas Men are held responsible for anything that does not have a favorable outcome despite not having any involvement.

But even though Men are held responsible when there is an outcome that is not favorable, their authority has been stripped away from them. It is subsequently given to women.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XVIII

Objective IV

To feminize Men
&
masculinize women

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Women are encouraged to take on masculine traits, while being shamed for being feminine and valuing conventionally feminine values.

Men are forced to take on feminine traits for fear job loss, false rape accusations, and even prosecution.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XIX

Girlfriends are better than wives

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Wives have no motivation to behave, stay fit, or remain faithful (among other things) because of the ball and chain around the collective ankles of today's husbands in the form of a contract with the state otherwise known as holy matrimony.

This is why the average wife is fat, bitchy, and closes her legs the moment she produces an offspring.

Girlfriends, on the other hand, are highly motivated to stay fit, feminine, and faithful because there is no contract in place guaranteeing her cash and prizes should she decide to detonate the relationship.

There is positively no reason for a Man to legally marry a woman. Doing so puts your future in grave danger.

If you want children, use a surrogate or relocate to another country devoid of Western influence (do not bring her back to the U.S.; you will regret it)

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XX

The opposite of love
is not hate;
it is indifference

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

If a woman claims that she “hates” her ex, she most certainly still loves him. As the saying goes, there’s a thin line between love and hate. And that thin line is what keeps the torch lit.

When she no longer cares, she is no longer in love.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XXI

A Man who is an A+ at one thing fucks
hotter women than a Man who is a B- at everything

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

There are a lot of Men who are in decent shape, make decent money, drive a decent car, and live a decent life.

Then there are Man who are exceptionally gifted at one thing. It could be art, music, his social aptitude, his ability to find talent, athleticism, the list is endless.

These are the Men who fuck the hottest girls all the time.

A Man could be below average looking, broke, lives with his parents or a roommate, lack direction, and have three kids by three different women.

But if he plays the electric guitar like Zach Wylde, or builds custom cars like no one has ever seen before, he will never be without a bevy of hot young females at his disposal.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XXII

Her tears are never genuine unless she is crying alone

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Women cry for many reasons. But it's almost never because they are feeling some sort of negative emotion.

Women primarily use their tears to manipulate the people around them. Coworkers, friends, family members, anyone and everyone she knows will be privy to her waterworks displays.

She might be trying to sway an opinion, she might be trying to avoid negative consequences for something she's done (or trying to do), or she might be trying to get you to loosen your stringent demands. It could be anything.

If she is crying alone, meaning that she thinks nobody is watching, then her tears are as genuine as her Jezebel Spirit.

But if she has an audience of even one person, regardless of age on either end, she is crying crocodile tears.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XXIII

Discovery
trumps
Disclosure

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Talking about your attributes and accomplishments to a woman comes off as try-hard and thirsty. When it comes to your money and lifestyle, talking about these things is leading with your wallet which is always a huge mistake when dealing with women.

Now, you may very well be an impressive individual. But if you proactively talk about how impressive you are, there is a very good possibility she might not believe you.

For example, if you tell her “I climbed Mount Everest!” she could be impressed, if she believes you.

But if she comes to your place and sees pictures of you climbing Mount Everest, that is going to have a far greater impact on her because she discovered this about you without you having to tell her.

Incidentally enough, this principle applies to just about every social dynamic there is.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XXIV

The more she tries to convince you, the more likely the opposite is true

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

A telltale sign of someone who is being dishonest with you, is that their explanation is long and extensive.

My mother used to tell me that she could tell when I was lying because I would try to explain myself. When she asked me “Donovan, did you steal a cookie from the cookie jar?” And my response was “There is absolutely, positively no way I stole the cookie from the cookie jar! I mean, I’m not even tall enough to reach the counter! And besides, I’ve just eaten lunch. So I’m not even close to being hungry. So why would I want to steal a cookie, if I’m not even hungry and couldn’t reach them?”

The same rule applies to women. When a woman spends 10 minutes explaining why she did or didn’t do or say something, it becomes clear that she is being dishonest.

Fortunately for Men, women still haven’t figured out that they tell on themselves by giving you a defense attorney style denial with pictures, timestamps, or anything else they feel will exonerate them.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Honest people are short winded because the truth is almost always much simpler. Dishonest people tend to be very long-winded so as to cover their bases, and repeat the lie to reinforce to you that they are telling the truth.

The longer her explanation, the more dishonest she is being.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XXV

9s and 10s are community property

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Extremely attractive woman are able to have sex with just about any Man they want at just about any time they want. As such, they indulge in themselves due to their lack of impulse control.

Combine that with the sheer abundance of opportunities they are presented with on a daily basis, and it is very easy for them to rack up double digit body counts in a very short period of time.

Do not be fooled by their false air of selectiveness. These girls get horny just like every other female. And at some point they give in to their slutty ways.

Keep in mind that super attractive girls do a very good job at hiding their sluttiness. But do not get it twisted, these girls have been ran through every bit as much as, if not more, than average looking girls.

The bottom line here is that 9s and 10s do not make good significant others. They belong to the game.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XXVI

Do not feel sorry for her if she gets fucked over by a guy; she's done the same to dozens of Men

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

A woman will cheat on, disrespect, and fuck over every single boyfriend she has ever had in her life. But the minute a guy actually gets the jump on her, it's "Men ain't shit!"

Never let a woman convince you that she is the victim. Sure, she may have run up on a guy who plays the game better than she does and he may very well have taken more than his share of his pound of flesh from her.

But make no mistake about the fact that for every one time a guy gets over on a girl, that same girl has gotten over on dozens of Men.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XXVII

Never allow her to see you cry

(Children, family, and pets are the exception but do not wallow in your sorrows for too long, lest you risk being viewed as mentally weak with little resolve)

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Do not, I repeat, DO NOT buy into the bullshit myth that “vulnerability is sexy.” Women despise weak Men. Period.

As such, you should never cry in front of your woman.

There are obvious exceptions to this rule, such as losing a family member, a friend, or a beloved pet. Regardless of a woman’s hard drive telling her to avoid weak Men, she understands that there are certain things that can and will move even the strongest Man to tears.

But do not wallow in your sorrows for too long, or her attraction to you could be compromised. Even if your pain is legitimate.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XXVIII

You will never be her first, her only, her biggest, or her best

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Do not make the egregious mistake of believing a woman who tells you “You have the biggest cock I’ve ever seen!”

She tells you this to make you feel special and to make you think she can’t get from anyone else what she gets from you.

Resolving in your mind that your girl (or a woman you’re dating) has been fucked better, has had bigger dicks in her than yours, and has done everything under the sun at least two dozen times (with at least two dozen Men) will make things much easier when she tells you that the 6’4“ black guy the two of you awkwardly ran into at the grocery store used to pound her senseless.

This is part of the game. It’s not easy to accept this, but you must.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XXIX

If it's easy to cheat, her relationship is “healthy”; if she cannot, it is “toxic”

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XXIX

If it's easy for her to cheat, she will call her relationship healthy; if it's difficult to cheat,
she calls it toxic

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Women who are allowed to text their exes, go to bars and/or clubs, travel by themselves, go on girls trips, and have social media accounts always characterize their relationships as “healthy.”

The reason for this is that when they decide to cheat (and they will) it will be very easy for them to do so. This makes them very happy, as it will be very easy to branch swing when they decide to.

On the other hand, when a woman figures out that it will be very difficult to get away with cheating on you, she will characterize your relationship as “toxic.”

Keep in mind that if a woman really wants to cheat, she will cheat. In the same vein, if someone really wanted to break into your house, they could do it.

But that doesn't mean you have to make it easy for her to cheat, anymore than it makes sense to leave your doors unlocked.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

She will, however, allow such a Man to fuck her. But she will do whatever is necessary to make sure her friends, family, and potential suitors never find out about it (See Law XIII).

There are scores of woman who will fuck lower tier Men on the low, while also pursuing higher value Men (higher value does not necessarily mean high value) in public. Once they get commitment from said Man, they will stop fucking the side dude...

Do not expect hot girls to be useful

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Today's highly attractive women are severely lacking in even the most remedial domestic skills. They can't cook or clean, nor are they interested in doing so.

This isn't completely their fault, as they have been handed the world since birth for merely existing.

That said, expecting an extremely attractive woman to have domestic skills to keep a home is almost always going to end in disappointment.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Women are never sorry for anything unless it directly, and immediately affects them negatively. And even then, they are not really sorry. They simply regret getting caught because it damaged them in some way, shape, or form.

Never expect a woman to be truly sorry for having wronged you.

LAW XXXIII

She is self destructive by nature; as such, she must always be

Women destroy anything and everything they have sole control over. Children, themselves, the dating market, businesses, everything.

Single mothers destroy their children, as their sons often run afoul of the law, and their daughters end up on stripper poles, or at the very least, have extremely promiscuous proclivities.

They destroy themselves with drugs, alcohol, and of course an endless supply of random cock which destroys them mentally, physically, emotionally, and even spiritually.

As far as the dating market goes, simply take a look around and you will see the result of the deregulation of the sexual marketplace which has given women unfettered control.

Women are rarely in need of actual physical protection. We live in a society virtually free of imminent physical danger, Which has made women as safe as they have ever been in human history.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

However, because of the safety of their environment (and their unrestricted control of the sexual marketplace), they engage in behaviors that destroy them in every way.

Therefore, the biggest, and most imminent threat to a woman today is herself.

So the easiest way to make her remember you is to fuck her with the ferocity of a Man who hates her which is to fuck her hard, pull her hair, and smack her ass....hard.

All woman love rough sex and these three basic principles (when abided by consistently) will achieve this goal far more often than not.

Women positively loathe not having a decided advantage on the dating market or in relationships. More specifically, when they cannot control a Man emotionally.

However, this is a good thing as women love being vulnerable to Men in every sense of the word. So while they might not like it, and will sometimes even fight it (most commonly with shit tests), they will eventually come to respect and eventually love a Man they cannot control.

More simply stated, woman do not like being at a disadvantage, but they absolutely adore it.

If she had a century

attractiveness, she would spend at least

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

It would be disingenuous not to acknowledge that sleeping around is a lot more fun and exciting than being a housewife. The uncertainty and exhilaration that comes with fucking random Men is far more enticing to women than being a stay at home Mom.

Although women are biologically hardwired to want a family, their self destructive nature (See Law XXXIII) lures them onto the cock carousel.

For these reasons, if given 100 years of peak fertility and attractiveness, women would most assuredly spend most of their time taking random dick from random Men before hitting the brakes at the 11th hour and locking down a Man for the long term.

This doesn't make them bad, or evil. This makes them women. And as we have seen when gone unchecked, as they are today, they will choose the excitement of the cock carousel over the perceived mundanity of long-term commitment and children (compared to the party life) far more often than not.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

A general rule of thumb is that if a Man has a trait that is attractive to women, that same trait would make the woman equally unattractive for long-term companionship.

A Man and a woman could have identical red flags, but the Man would be far more attractive to women (from all walks of life) than the woman would be to high-value Man.

A woman with tattoos is automatically disqualified for a long-term relationship with a high value Man. But a Man with tattoos could gain the commitment of just about every woman, regardless of her value.

A Man with a criminal record* is highly attractive to women**, while a woman with a criminal record would send just about every Man running for the hills.

This doesn't mean that high value Men would not fuck woman with red flags, because they do on the regular. But they will never commit anything outside of their cock and balls to such a woman because they know

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

One of the many tried and true dating hacks that have emerged over the past two and a half decades is that women describe themselves as the Men they want in their lives.

A woman who tells you that she is driven, ultra competitive, knows what she wants, and has an insatiable desire to succeed, wants a Man with these character traits.

Conversely, she will also tell you what she wants in a Man when she is describing what she does not. A woman who tells you that she doesn't want a Man who has player vibes (indirectly displays he has experience with women), is an asshole, or selfish is telling you that this is exactly what she needs.

Never expect a woman to have the ability to tell you exactly what she wants in a Man. She is incapable of admitting that she is drawn to traits that society tells her to steer clear of.

Before making a financial decision involving a woman, masturbate twice, and then decide

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

This is a simple concept known in this community as “post ejaculation clarity” (sometimes referred to as “post nut clarity”)

One of the few things that most Men who make terrible financial decisions involving a woman (paying a bill for her, letting her “borrow” money, etc.) have in common at the time of their decision, is that their scrotums are filled to the brim with sperm.

In other words they are extremely horny. Which subconsciously tells them that if they give a woman access to his resources, then that woman will give him access to her body in return.

This has clouded judgment of smart Men the world over, and is responsible for copious amounts of money transferred to women without the expected sexual reciprocation. This is one of the best kept, and most guarded secrets among woman.

The best, and most effective way to avoid these situations is to masturbate twice before making a herself unless she is

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Women are masters of deception. Anything they tell you is devoid of self incriminating evidence.

The rare exception is when she volunteers unfavorable information. 11 times out of 10 when she tells you “I ran into my ex the other day,” it means she’s been fucking her ex for the last six months.

The reason she tells you she “ran into him” is to make you believe that you can trust her. She knows that you are thinking “Wow! She didn’t have to tell me about seeing her ex, but she did anyway! I know I can trust her now because she told me something she didn’t have to!”

On this correct assumption, she engages in infidelity knowing that she has completely thrown you off the scent. So when she tells you “Hey, I’m going to a friend’s for coffee,” you don’t question the validity of what she told you because you foolishly believe she is always honest with you.

So when a woman proactively volunteers disparaging

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

information about herself, stay on your Ps and Qs, keep your wits about you, and pay close attention to what she does and says. Chances are, you'll uncover something far more egregious than "running into her ex."

LAW XLI

She rarely has her own beliefs; she usually believes what the strongest Man in her life believes

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Women seldom have beliefs that originate from their own experiences or of their own inception. They inherently understand that their thinking is flawed.

Deep down, they know they cannot trust their own judgment (hence, the ironclad rule of pre-selection; a woman is never completely all in on a Man if her female friends don't indirectly sign off on him first).

Accordingly, they only believe what the strongest, and most influential Men in their lives believe.

Religiously, if the strongest, and most influential Man in her life is a devout Catholic, it is "Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth!" If the strongest Man she knows is an atheist, it's "there is no God."

The same principle applies to their ancillary preferences, like music, food, and political beliefs.

Understanding this fundamental truth can also help a Man uncover possible infidelity. If out of the blue,

LAW XLII

Most women have had sex with more women than most Men

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Women are naturally attracted to each other. They are not the only ones who see how beautiful they are, how great they smell, and the way they move feel etc.

Combine this with the fact that woman have sex with so many guys, that eventually they get bored and look for an exciting new sexual adventure. Having done everything with just about every guy, they often “switch hit.”

Some do it on the low, and some are open about it (those who are open about it know that their sexuality will never be called into question the way a Man’s sexuality would if it were discovered that he has sexual experience with other Man; Carlton from the Netflix reality dating show Love Is Blind is a good example of a Man being forever [and rightfully] branded as homosexual after the revelation of his commingling with persons of the same sex).

And due to the sexual shackles that have been placed upon Man in the modern day (See Law XVIII, Objective II), women are able to pursue other women other women sexually without restraint.

On the basis that the average male has had sex with seven women in his lifetime, it is safe to assume that the average woman has had more than seven sexual encounters with other women.

Men who vehemently deny this theory need to check their egos at the door and understand that this is one of the dark realities of today's sexual marketplace and that it is not an affront on their own Masculinity.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XLIII

Sexual attraction is

(Rollo Tomassi)

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Men who sit around bitching and complaining about the fact that women are more attracted to degenerate cheaters who treat them like shit than they are to responsible Men who treat them like ladies simply do not understand the stark reality that attraction cannot be negotiated.

This is a feminine activity, as women are constantly trying to tell Men that they should be sexually attracted to women who are overweight.

It would behoove a Man to improve himself in ways he has control over to increase his opportunities with women, rather than wasting time bellyaching about what women should be attracted to.

Sexual attraction cannot be negotiated no matter how much you want it to be.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XLIV

She is rarely true

woman; she simply tolerates her

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Women have a natural disdain for one another because they know one another. Familiarity breeds contempt, as the saying goes, and there is no better model then females who are “friends.”

This isn't to say there aren't times they don't truly love each other as friends, because sometimes they do. But it takes far less to disrupt and even destroy a friendship between women, than it takes to detonate a friendship between Men.

Women fight and argue over the pettiest things. But their fall outs are rarely a direct result of whatever it is in question. It is simply their inherent dislike of one another that magnifies even the most insignificant conflicts.

Then true to their fickle nature, they inevitably find their way back to each other only to “break up” again, then rekindle their “friendship.” Rinse and repeat.

Ergo the oft used term “frenemy” to describe a given woman's relationship with another woman.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XLV

She will grow old,
but she will never grow up

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Today's women are little more than overgrown children. They prove as much every day.

Women stop maturing the moment it becomes clear to them that Men want to fuck them. The reason is because a female knows that her sexuality is her ticket to everything in life. And when she discovers that her sexuality gets favorable treatment from Men, she has no reason to mature.

Her firmware is telling her "OK...persons of the opposite sex want to fuck me. Shutting down the progression of all maturity."

Women of all ages understand very clearly that their sexuality is their one and only currency. This currency gets her attention, favorable treatment, and most importantly, resources and commitment in the form of provisioning. It opens all doors for her.

This is why the average 28-year-old woman still acts like a 14-year-old girl. She figured out that Men (and boys) want to fuck her when she was 14 (Law XXXI also pertains to this).

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

However, the maturation process starts up again when they realize that the Men who used to want to fuck them, no longer want to. But the process picks up where it left off; not where her age is now.

Here's an example: A girl discovers Men want to fuck her when she's 15 years old so she starts maturing at 15. She sport fucks her way through the rest of her teens and 20s.

Then, at 34 years of age after repeatedly being rejected by and becoming invisible to the Men who used to fuck her over an extended period of time (because woman never realize they've hit the wall until it is too late, as their narcissistic mentality is very difficult to kill), she starts to mature again.

But she won't act like a 34-year-old. She will act like her 15-year-old self. At 35, she will act like she's 16, at 36 she will act like a 17-year-old, and so forth.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

This explains why women in their 40s still act like they are in their early 20s, thereby dispelling the myth that “cougars” make better mates because they are more “mature.”

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XLVI

If you lose your edge,
she will be less
attracted to you;
this is a good thing

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Never complain that a woman would leave you if you were to lose your edge, get fat, and turn into a pitiful excuse of a Man.

Conditional love is evolutionarily essential. Mother nature knows that if women loved unconditionally, the best genes would eventually become extinct, leaving the human species itself vulnerable to extinction as a result of a lack of superior genes advancing through the generations.

Obviously, women do not consciously think about such things but their hard drives do the thinking for them as they steer clear of procreating with Men with inferior genes.*

It is very important not to take this personally, but to understand that women are designed to be this way as a matter of survival and legacy.

So thank your lucky stars that her love for you is 100% conditional (See Law IV), because if she did you would lose your edge very quickly knowing that she will stay with you no matter what.

*Inferior genes doesn't always necessarily mean short, weak, balding Men. A Man who has inferior physical genetics could definitely have superior Mental genetics that give him intelligence, drive, ingenuity, and creativity... All of which could serve him well in the way of acquiring resources. And woman know this as they certainly wouldn't mind giving birth to a child of a Man with any of these traits in spades as it will serve her offspring well in the future.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

LAW XLVII

Never deny a woman
the privilege of working for your time, attention, and commitment

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

People value what they are required to work for substantially more than what they are given. Here's an example:

If one kid gets brand new BMW for his 16th birthday, and another 16-year-old had to mow lawns, babysit, do odd jobs, and save every penny to buy a junk bucket 1984 Honda Accord, the kid who has the Honda values his car a lot more than the kid who got the brand new BMW, even though the BMW has more market value.

The same fundamental truth applies to the attention women get from Men. Women who are given attention, commitment, time, and resources from Men for just showing up, do not value said offerings.

This is why women make the Men who take them to extravagant, expensive restaurants on the first date, wait for a lot longer for sex (if they even give up the ass in the first place) than they do the Men who require them to work for their attention and resources.*

No matter what women say, they want to work for your attention because they want to know it's worth something. If you freely and easily give a woman attention and resources, she is not going to value it because you made it clear through your actions that you don't.

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

If you want a woman to value your time and attention, make her earn it. She will handsomely reward you for it.

*The exceptions to this rule are wealthy Men, celebrities, professional athletes, etc. as these Men don't have to prove that their attention is valuable for obvious reasons.

There are quite a few slut tells that are very easily explained. “If she smokes, she pokes” means that if she smokes cigarettes, which is harmful to her body, then she is equally irresponsible when it comes to her love life.

Smoking cigarettes causes all kinds of health issues, not the least of which is cancer, which could lead to death. A woman who displays this kind of risk tolerance with her health will more than likely display the same kind of risk tolerance when it comes to her sexual tendencies (STDs, pregnancies, etc.), ergo the axiom “If she smokes...”

A woman’s failure to keep a tidy domicile being a sign that she is sexually promiscuous is one such slut tell that has rarely failed to be inaccurate. But this one is largely unexplainable.

There are a few theories out there, such as if she doesn’t take care of her home, and then she doesn’t take care of herself which means she doesn’t value herself, which means low self-esteem, which manifests

XLIX Laws Of Sharpe

Men in this community are often branded as “woman haters.” And to be fair, it’s not hard to see why this is. There are many Men in our ranks in various factions who give this community a bad name.

“Black pill” guys masquerading as MGTOWs (Men Going Their Own Way), who do nothing but complain about women and the fact that they’re not getting laid, and Men who have committed unspeakable crimes in the name of “Men’s rights” or “The Red Pill” (google: Elliot Roger, and Alec Menassian) have made it very easy to brand Men who openly subscribe to the red pill mindset as misogynistic losers who can’t get laid and hate women for it.

However, Men who truly hate and despise women are Men who do not truly understand them for who and what they are. The more a Man understands women, the less animosity he has toward them.

It is absolutely critical for a Man to understand that women are not inherently bad or evil. They just are. Their habits and characteristics are heavily

If they are placed into a container that cultivates horrible behavior, then it should be no surprise they act the way they do.

So do not hate women. Rather, seek to understand them. Only then will you truly come to appreciate the fact that they are weird, wonderful, fantastic, and fucked up all at the same time, all the time, and act
